In Peloponisos we have the burning of judas. we take clothes and we make a doll, on good friday night we burn the doll!!!

alviona, Greece

Easter preparations begin on Holy Thursday when the traditional Easter bread, tsu, is baked, and eggs are dyed red (red is the color of life as well as a representation of the blood of Christ). Since ancient times, the egg has been a symbol of the renewal of life, and the message of the red eggs is victory over death. (More on the history of red eggs at Easter.)

Paul, Greece

Every Easter I go to my village, Karpenisi. I have a great time.

On Easter Sunday we eat roast lamb and we clink red eggs and after that we eat them. Also we eat chocolate eggs and chocolate bunnies. We also go to church on Holy Saturday and at 24:00 we light our candles.
